

Future Library

Besides providing students with forty thousands books in the library, STMIK AMIKOM Yogyakarta also provides the students with e-library, one of the most sophisticated libraries that have been evaluated with the rank A.

In the e-library, the students are provided with a number of computers which are not only installed with its special software but connected to the Internet as well, and the students can access it for free to obtain its contents from unlimited sources.

Books and Library