

Competitive Advantages

STMIK AMIKOM Yogyakarta has competitive advantages supporting its graduates to compete in the global market.

The competitive advantages are: all the academic activities based on IT; internationally certified lecturers with competence in their fields; a variety of business units to equip graduates with work experience through the real-world labs that cover: Television Studio (RBTv), a place for students to learn how to manage TV stations, program planning, production and post production and broadcasting; Radio Studio (MQ FM), a place for students to learn various things related to radio broadcasting; Internet Service Company (Time Excelindo Internet Service Provider), a business unit for students to work and learn to manage their ISP, web hosting, web design, network administration, online system, and data communication; Animation, Multimedia, and Broadcast Company (MSV), a business unit for students to develop the ability to manage the multimedia business like cartoon production, company profile, media planner, TV commercial, and TV programs; Software Development Company, a business unit for students to develop skills in various things related to software engineering; international study programs including Cisco Academy and Oracle Certified Academy; language and computer laboratories supporting the development of expertise; and a variety of programs leading to the development of soft skills of students.

Why Study at
STMIK AMIKOM
Yogyakarta